

bruce bollinger

Eagle Scout Bruce Bollinger's devotion, enthusiastic energy and commitment to the Scouting program are a model for other volunteers. He gives 100 percent in everything he does, whether it is coordinating the logistics of summer camp, making presentations at Roundtable, teaching at University of Scouting or serving his children's school or church.

He served Pack 554 as a Tiger Cub Coach, den leader and Cubmaster. He served Troop 496 as Assistant Scoutmaster, Advancement Chair, Outdoor Chair, Eagle Scout Advisor and Assistant Crew Advisor at Philmont.

He puts his Wood Badge training to use as a member of the district training staff and Roundtable staff. He was the district Popcorn Chairman and worked on several Family Friends of Scouting campaigns. He shared his Scouting knowledge by teaching at the University of Scouting, serving as a Merit Badge Counselor and God and Country Advisor.

Outside of Scouting, he taught Sunday school, coached baseball, cross-country, racquetball, soccer and has officiated at track and cross-country meets. He tirelessly donates his time shooting, editing and creating multi-media Senior Slide Shows shown at graduation. He served on the Alumni Board of Directors for The Principia, Class Chairman for Principia College, Past-President of Parent Association and Youth Advisor for Unity Trip. He volunteered the design work for telecommunications systems at Peace Haven Nursing Home and at The Principia School.

He received the Special Achiever's Award, his district's Award of Merit, and Expert Trainer Awards. He is the father of an Eagle Scout.

charles caverly

Charles "Chuck" Caverly personifies the Eagle Scout; he lives by his Eagle Charge, and truly gives back to Scouting, his church and community as a volunteer.

Chuck was committee chair and Cubmaster for Pack 575, chartered to Rose Acres Elementary School PTA, was committee chairman and is currently Scoutmaster for Troop 954 and committee member for Venturing Crew 2954, chartered to Holy Spirit Catholic Church. He was a unit commissioner and an area district commissioner, a camping committee member, and is his district's Family Friends of Scouting Campaign chairman.

Chuck is a past president of the Eagle Scout Association and serves on its board of directors. Under his direction, the ESA renovated the Vollmar Council Ring and upgraded the path leading up to and the walls surrounding the front of the Carl Bauman Chapel. Chuck also provided direction and assistance for several of the brick plazas throughout the council.

Chuck's service extends beyond Scouting to his church and community. He was a coach and past president of the parish athletic association and vice chairman of the Maryland Heights Planning and Zoning Commission.

Chuck received his district's Award of Merit and the Bronze Pelican.

Eagle Scout Tom Coscia unselfishly devoted his time and talents to Scouting and the community for more than 30 years. From his service as a member of the Council's summer camp staff to his years as Scoutmaster, he strived to instill positive virtues into the lives of thousands of Scouts. After serving on summer camp staff, he became an assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 21, chartered to Wydown Middle School PTO. He spent the next 13 years as an assistant Scoutmaster. During his 18-year tenure as Scoutmaster, more than 75 young men earned the rank of Eagle Scout.

He served on the district training staff for five years and on the Junior Leader Training Camp staff for eight years. He served on the Council's National Jamboree Contingent in 1989.

He's an active volunteer for Junior Achievement for over 15 years and served the St. Louis Ski club for many years, including a year as president. He's a member of Cure of Ars Catholic Church. Tom is also a Distinguished Toastmaster.

He earned numerous training awards and completed Wood Badge training. He received his district's Award of Merit and is a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow.

kevin cummins

Eagle Scout Kevin Cummins demonstrated tireless service to Scouting beginning in 1960 when he joined Cub Scouting. As a youth he earned his religious emblem, was a Chapter Chief and served on numerous Camporee staffs, including the 1970 Forest Park Camporee Staff and every Council Camporee since.

As an adult, Kevin dedicated himself to unit, district and council activities. He was a den leader, an assistant Cubmaster, assistant Scoutmaster, and Scoutmaster. He served his district as a unit commissioner, assistant district commissioner, training chairman, Eagle Board of Review Chairman, Friends of Scouting Chairman and Order of the Arrow Chapter Advisor. He served on numerous Junior Leader Training Camp staffs as Scoutmaster, Program Director and Camp Director. Currently on the Shooting Sports Committee, Kevin is developing a new shooting sports complex at Beaumont Scout Reservation and actively trains adults as firearms instructors.

While Scoutmaster, 31 Scouts earned the Eagle Scout rank. He received the National President's Scoutmaster Award of Merit and Scouter's Key. He founded the Cub Scout pack, troop and crew at Christ, Prince of Peace Catholic Church and served as the chartered organization representative since its inception.

He is a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow and received his district's Award of Merit. He received the Commissioner's Key, Distinguished Commissioner Award and completed Wood Badge. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Eagle Scout Association and was recently elected president.

Outside of Scouting, Mr. Cummins is active in his church and served as Parish Council President. He serves the Missouri Department of Conservation as a Certified Firearms Instructor and Chief Range Safety Officer.
